

Annie Tasawar is a singer and a songwriter. She was born in Pakistan on December 27th 1992, Annie has been writing songs since she was eleven years old and she has not stopped since. She loves to sing, she has been singing for a long time but she did not take it seriously until August 2008. Annie writes songs of her own, she is currently working on her own album. "I love writing songs, because once I start I can't stop," says the 16-year-old. Annie's musical influences are Christina Aguilera, Kelly Clarkson, and Leona Lewis. Annie wants to pursue directing as her career, and being an executive producer. She loves animals, drawing, and playing the viola. Annie hopes to be successful in what she does and has high hopes for herself.